SHORT LOCALS.

Brief Items of Interest Throughout the Town and County.

Christmas day comes on Saturday this year, and it is only 23 days distant.

The Beaufort and Denmark high schools played football Friday morning on the Denmark gridiron, Denmark winning 25 to 0.

The coldest weather of the fall arrived Tuesday morning. Ice was in plentiful evidence, and there was a heavy frost on the ground.

Mr. Henry J. Ritter announces the engagement of his daughter, Sudy, to Mr. Henry Cart Glover, of Walterboro, the wedding to take place in December.

The residence of Mr. E. H. Henderson, which is nearing completion, will be quite an addition to Railroad avenue. The residence will cost about $4,000, and will be quite modern in every respect.

Congressman James F. Byrnes left on Sunday for Washington, to attend to his duties before congress meets. Mr. H. B. Hare, his secretary, left for Washington yesterday.—Aiken Journal and Review.

The price of cotton has advanced about a cent and a half within ten days' time. Many farmers around Bamberg are holding for higher prices, and the present condition of the market is very encouraging to them.

The friends in Bamberg of Capt. G. O. Murray, the genial and well known Southern Railway conductor, of Aiken, will regret to learn that owing to the condition of his health he has gone to the Johns Hopkins hospital in Baltimore for treatment. He was accompanied by Mrs. Murray.

Very little cotton remains to be ginned in this county. Where farmers have been ginning as the staple was picked, the season is about over with them. Some farmers still have a few bales of cotton on hand to be ginned out. The crop is considerably shorter in this county than at first thought.

The farmers are now busily harvesting one of the largest crops of peas that the county has ever made. The yield is unusually good this year, it is reported, and quite a large area has been planted. As the prevailing price of peas is good, the crop means a considerable amount to the farmers this year.

Thanksgiving day passed off very quietly in Bamberg. The postoffice observed Sunday hours, the banks were closed, the dispensaries ceased operations for a day, and most of the stores took a day off. A large crowd went out to Rhoad's park at noon to witness the Bamberg-Beaufort football game.

Last week The Herald carried a greater amount of display advertising than perhaps any one regular issue of the paper since it was established. The merchants of Bamberg and Bamberg county are realizing that there is no better way to get acquainted with purchasers than through the columns of The Herald.

CARLISLE SCHOOL NOTES.

Football Team Makes Fine Record for First Season.

Last week was one of activity and pleasure on the Carlisle campus. Any holiday occasion brings pleasure to a student, and especially at an institution which has few of them, as at the Carlisle school. Some of the students who live near enough went home and every effort was made to make the occasion a pleasant one for those who remained here.

On Wednesday evening the annual Thanksgiving reception was held. The spacious reception hall or lobby of Guild's hall was tastefully decorated with handsome pot plants and chrysanthemums for the occasion. During the evening a delicious ice course was served. The students and their friends who were present declared it to be a delightfully pleasant evening. It was a pleasure to have as guests on that occasion the members of the Beaufort high school football team.

At noon on Thanksgiving day came the football game with the Beaufort high school. The game was very one-sided, the score being 144 to 0 in Carlisle's favor, but served as quite a pleasant pastime. Then came ye turkey dinner!

The Beaufort game closed the football season and the management is much pleased with the showing the team has made, considering the fact that this is really Carlisle's first year in football. Out of seven games played the team suffered only one defeat; in fact, was scored upon in only one game. Porter defeated Carlisle early in the season. The following are the games played and the scores: St. Matthews high school 0, Carlisle 32; Denmark high school 0, Carlisle 37; Porter Military Academy 47, Carlisle 0; St. Matthews (town team) 0, Carlisle 0; Orangeburg high school 0, Carlisle 12; Blackville and Barnwell high schools (combined) 0, Carlisle 24; Beaufort high school 0, Carlisle 144. Totals: Opponents 47, Carlisle 349.

This week Coach Whitaker is beginning work with the basketball team.

Carlisle was honored and profited by having two distinguished guests at chapel exercises on Friday morning, the Hon John G. Woolley, of Wisconsin, and one-time presidential nominee of the Prohibition party, and Dr. Geo. W. Morrow, of Michigan, field secretary of the National Anti-Saloon league. Both of these gentlemen are charming speakers and made two most helpful talks.

LaFoy-Ayer Marriage.

One of the prettiest of the many November weddings was that at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jno. L. LaFoy on Wednesday, November 24th, at 3 o'clock when their daughter, Kate, became the bride of Mr. Frederick Charles Ayer, of Bamberg, S. C. This hospitable home was never more beautiful and inviting than on this occasion when it was tastefully decorated with great masses of ferns and chrysanthemums. Promptly at the appointed hour to the strains of Lohengren's wedding march played by Mrs. Tavenor LaFoy, the two small brothers of the bride led the bridal procession into the parlor and took their place, one on either side of a great bank of ferns. Then came the bride and groom, and in a most beautiful and impressive manner, Dr. Jno. E. White performed the ceremony which united them.

The bride was dressed in a traveling suit of dark blue. Immediately after the ceremony the couple left in an automobile to take an evening train for Augusta, Atlanta and points in Florida, after which they will be at home to their many friends at Bamberg.

Mrs. Ayer is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. LaFoy and is a very charming and accomplished young lady. She is a graduate of Winthrop college and for the past year has been one of the most successful teachers of the State, having taught in the Bamberg public schools, at which place Mr. Ayer first met her. Her many friends here will regret to see her leave Anderson but feel sure she will receive a hearty welcome to her new home at Bamberg, where she has many friends.

Mr. Ayer is a grand nephew of the much loved General Lewis M. Ayer, who is so well remembered in Anderson. Both Mr. and Mrs. Ayer have many friends here and throughout the entire State who wish them happiness in their married life.—Anderson Daily Mail.

Mrs. Ayer, as Miss LaFoy, was quite a favorite among a large circle of friends in Bamberg. She taught in the graded school last session, and by her bright and lovable disposition endeared herself to a large number of acquaintances. Mr. Ayer is a young man who has as many friends as acquaintances. Mr. and Mrs. Ayer have the best wishes of their numerous friends in the city and county. They are residing with Capt. and Mrs. L. M. Ayer.

For National Prohibition.

Hon. John G. Woolley and Rev. George W. Morrow, representatives of the Anti-Saloon league of America, visited Bamberg last Friday, and made addresses at the Methodist church. These gentlemen are making a tour of the State in the interest of a national prohibition law. A resolution offering an amendment to the federal constitution prohibiting the sale or manufacture of alcoholic beverages, except for medicinal and certain other uses, will be offered at the next session of congress, and it is for the purpose of arousing public sentiment in favor of this amendment that the tour is being made in this and other States.

At the last session of congress a resolution similar to the one to be offered the coming session, received 197 affirmative votes, and 189 negative votes, a two-thirds vote being necessary to passage.

Mr. Delk Wins Case.

The appeal in the case of Mr. D. J. Delk against the Atlantic Coast Line railway company has been thrown out of the supreme court. The time limit for the filing of certain papers in the case by the railroad company having expired, the clerk marked the case off. A hearing was held in Columbia Monday, and the supreme court refused to reinstate the case for further consideration. It is stated that this action means that the case is practically ended. The case was tried last spring in the Bamberg court, Mr. Delk receiving a verdict for $5,740.60. The railroad company appealed the case, with the above stated result. It will be recalled that Mr. Delk alleged that he was ejected from the defendant company's train at a point in Florida, sustaining injuries thereby, and losing his baggage.

Won By Record Score.

The Carlisle school football team defeated Beaufort high school at Rhoad's park Thursday morning, score 144 to 0. It was evident from the outset that the boys from Beaufort were outclassed and the only point of interest was to see how high the score could be piled. At the end of the first half the score stood 89 to 0, and so during the second half Coach Whitaker put in quite a number of his substitutes in order that they might get a taste of a real game. The entire Carlisle team showed up well. This game closed the season. Time of quarters, 12 minutes. Referee, Gue (Carolina.) Umpire, Cooner (Carolina.) Head linesman, Belinger (Carolina.)

Will Build Picture Show.

Brick are being put on the ground for the erection of a building fronting on Main street, on the lot owned by Mr. P. B. Murphy. The building will measure 35 feet front by 75 feet in length, and will be occupied by the Thielen Theatre. It is stated that the new theatre will be modern in every respect. The building will be erected on the lots on which are now several unsightly shanties, and will greatly improve that part of the business street.

About the fifteenth of January an addition will be made to the building, and this will be occupied by Mr. Murphy as a soda fountain and specialty stand.

Attention, Camp Jenkins, 627.

You are requested to meet on Saturday, the 4th inst., at the court house, at 2:30 p. m. Every comrade is urgently requested to attend, as business of importance will be considered.

J. R. OWENS,
Adjutant.

Next Thursday Clean-Up Day.

At a meeting of a committee from the Civic league it was decided to observe next Thursday, Dec. 9th, as clean-up day in order that our town may be attractive and in good order for the holidays. So much has been written on this subject, it seems hard to know just what to say to arouse the civic pride of our citizens, but am sure nothing better can be found than the extracts below, taken from an article in the Pictorial Review:

"A town or city is as dirty or attractive as its people make it. It cannot rise above the level of its citizens. When traveling, you realize that a dirty city is made up of dirty households, inefficient citizenry. If you do not keep your city clean, you confess to unclean individual homes. As a man liveth, so is his home town. If you believe in your home town and have testified to this belief by investing in property or a business venture, increase your property values and your income by demanding a clean town. Remember, it takes concerted action, community pride of all classes, in all sections of a town, to bring about municipal cleanliness.

"Clean your own home first, because no woman can throw herself heart and soul into a municipal house-cleaning campaign if her own home needs her attention. And while cleaning look to your plumbing, your drainage, your well and cistern. Burn your refuse in a hole dug for the purpose." (Do not put paper boxes, etc., out in the street, burn them at the back.)

"First cousin to a refuse-strewn alley is that weed-choked lot between you and your neighbor." (Bamberg cannot be clean and attractive as long as property holders are allowed to keep their vacant lots covered with weeds, trash and undergrowth.)

"Clean your street. Do you think that a neatly clipped lawn and well kept gravel walks will command respect from those who pass your house, if they see the sweepings from lawn and walks have been flung out into the gutter or street? Don't you judge a neighborhood by the condition of the gutters and streets in front of the houses? Don't you see them first and the front yards and trim porches next? Clean your markets. Make it very clear that a merchant who sweeps the trash from his store into the front street or back into the alley is not a desirable citizen worthy of your trade. Boycot that tradesman who keeps vegetables, fruits, and other foodstuffs in a filthy, unventilated, over-heated cellar. Take your trade from a butcher who hangs his meat where it is exposed to flies and whose apron and hands are dirty, or the grocer whose bins and barrels are always open. Offer your trade to clean dealers and put the fear of God and your sanitary laws in the hearts of those dealers who are untidy.

"Clean your schools. Do you know whether your schools are kept clean and how they are cleaned? Do you know whether they are freed from dust, germs, or whether they are sprinkled with a disinfectant?

"There is a great difference between removing dust and laying it, between digging out germs and numbing them with disinfectants. Have you ever seen the lavatories and toilet rooms in your local school houses? Do you know whether the plumbing is in good condition and the water supply clean and pure? Do you know whether your children use a common or an individual drinking cup, or a fountain faucet?

"Clean your churches. Do you know whether the sexton airs the church after service or closes it up, germs and all? Do fresh air and sunlight ever bathe your dear old church, as the word of God bathes your souls on Sunday?

"Clean your movie theatres. Have you ever stopped to consider what the popular 'movie' theatre can do to hurt health conditions in your town? The unventilated theatre is probably the best little breeder of germs in your city or town. By all means clean up your 'movie' theatre. Insist that it be thoroughly aired after both afternoon and evening performances, that ventilators and proper cleaning facilities be installed, or you will not patronize nor permit your children to patronize the theatre.

"Clean up your dairies. Perhaps this looks like a big contrast in civic house-cleaning. But stop to organize the work—and you will find the individual burden light. Individually, you control the cleanliness of your own premises, and you correct municipal evils by force of example and sentiment.

"The first step is to create a desire for general sanitation, cleanliness and beauty in your town. The second is to work together all through clean-up week and keep at it. Every week ought to be a clean-up week. Clean-up week represents the best investment of energy American homemakers can make. It stands for healthier families, happier homes, higher real estate values and better citizenship."

Richard Carroll to Speak.

Rev. Richard Carroll, of Columbia, will speak in Bamberg at the court house on Monday night next, at eight o'clock, to men only. Both white and colored people are cordially invited to be present and hear him. The lecture will be free of admission. Carroll is the leading member of the negro race in this State, and, perhaps, the most prominent negro in the country since the death of Booker T. Washington. He is now being urged as the negro race leader.

One-half of the court house will be reserved for the white people. Carroll's work for the elevation of the negroes has attracted nation-wide attention, and every one who hears him may be assured that they will hear nothing offensive.

The following are some comments on the lecture of Richard Carroll to men only:

"Some years ago the Rev. Richard Carroll gave in my presence in the chapel of Benedict college, a lecture to young men that was the most discreet, judicious, appropriate, safe and helpful that I have ever heard pertaining to sex and sexual relations. If he is now giving to men that same lecture he gave to them, it will not only be instructive but eminently helpful."—A. C. Osborne, Former President of Benedict college.

"He is one of the most sensible, practical speakers I have ever heard."—Rev. J. P. Robinson, D. D., (white) Cincinnati, Ohio.

"His lecture at our fair association was one of the greatest I have ever heard."—Dr. C. T. Walker, Augusta, Ga.

"We wish to say that no public utterance delivered in Gaffney by any man, white or colored, has been fraught with more truth or common sense than that of Rev. Richard Carroll."—The Gaffney Ledger.

"I have been in Austin twenty-three years and I have never heard anything like it before. It was the largest gathering of negro men I have ever seen in this city."—Dr. L. L. Campbell, Austin, Texas.

"If our men had heard this lecture when they were boys, we would have better homes, healthier wives and stronger children."—Dr. W. H. Crawford, physician, Austin, Texas.—adv.

Forgery of a Thumb Print.

Calcutta, India, Oct. 25.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—The forgery of a blind man's thumb print has just been the subject of protracted litigation in the high court at Madras, for the first time, it is said, in legal history. A merchant asked for judgment against the blind man, supporting his application with a document signed with the alleged thumb print of the debtor. The latter repudiated the paper, declaring that the plaintiff had traveled in a train with him and while pretending to massage his fingers had taken his thumb impression and used it for falsifying the document.

The court, after protracted hearings, found the blind debtor's story correct and dismissed the merchant's application for judgment.

The swinging semaphore on the railroads is being displaced and electric lights indicating the semaphore positions are being used instead. The latter are more plainly visible.

Cotton Ginned in Bamberg County.

According to the report of the bureau of census, department of commerce, there had been ginned in Bamberg county up to November 14, 1915, 13,790 bales of cotton, counting round as half bales. This compares with 22,645 bales ginned to the same date last year. This is a reduction of approximately 9,000 bales from the amount ginned last year to the same date.

Fiddlers' Barbecue.

We have about completed plans for a barbecue for the fiddlers at "New Bridge," Wednesday, Dec. 8th, which is one of the dates of fiddlers' convention.

Our citizens are invited to give any assistance they will for the success of same. We are sure we will have a fine barbecue. We have a good many lady members of the convention, so the ladies and their friends and baskets are expected to be with us. If any should desire to bring a basket same will be very much appreciated and helpful. We would suggest that we assemble about midday at New Bridge, as we will have several speakers on the grounds, namely: J. S. Breland, vice president; R. F. Kirkland, J. J. Smoak, W. E. Spann, G. O. Simmons, and each of these is promised a full hearing, but are not expected to consume over 40 minutes each.

So we look forward to this as the day of days for the fiddlers.
